Stanly County Genealogical Society

Meeting of the Stanly County Genealogical Society

Saturday, June 28th at 10 a.m.

Free and open to all! Live at the Stanly County Library or virtually on Zoom

Great things are going on with the Uwharrie Chapter of the Jamestown Society, for which J.D. Burleson will report on the chapter's recent workdays in Virginia. Following a brief business session, J. D. will speak on the importance of Bremo Cemetery at the Curle Farm and how and why the chapter installed a proper iron gate at this remote Virginia site. The cemetery represents an essential stop for Jamestown-rooted Harward descendants and others who spread across North Carolina, including places like Edgecombe, Wake, and Chatham Counties, as they slowly migrated to Stanly County and beyond.

Join in on this presentation hosted by the Stanly County Genealogical Society. Get involved because, whether from Harvard or other ancestral backgrounds, talks like this represent journeys made by many of our families. Join the meeting online at:

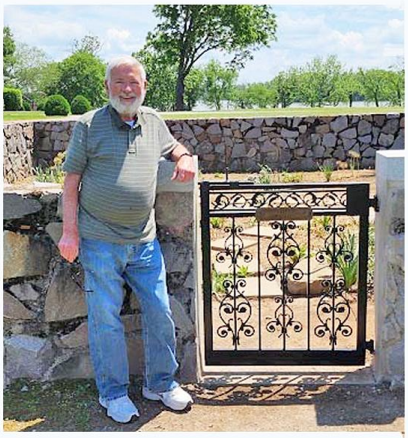

https://us06web.zoom.us/j/82567709773

Questions? Contact the programming coordinator at geothos@bellsouth.net

The Virginia Home

Sharing a Stanly County group's exploration of their Jamestown-rooted ancestral home

Saturday, June 28th at 10 a.m.

Open to all! Live at the Stanly County Library or Virtual online at Zoom

Pertinent to Harward and others rooted in Stanly County, J.D. Burleson shares the recent Uwharrie Jamestown Chapter's trip to Curle Farm in Virginia where they explored and installed a new gate at the historic Bremo Cemetery.

Stanly County Genealogical Society

Hosted by the Stanly County Genealogical Society